

Role Description: Team Logistics Manager

Sport Performance Department

About us:

British Taekwondo is the National Governing Body for the Martial Art & Olympic sport of Taekwondo in Great Britain, serving a 700 strong club network with a 18,000 membership across the United Kingdom.

Our core business and small number of staff supports and regulates member club activity, events, competitions and teams across the Olympic combat sport, Poomsae (forms) and traditional Martial Art disciplines.

British Taekwondo works closely with and supports our expert led volunteer workforce departments who drive our policies and grow participation.

British Taekwondo also collaborates with GB Taekwondo, the high-performance arm responsible for Olympic sport & Paralympic sport programs.

British Taekwondo always aims to recruit and retain individuals through fair and effective recruitment and selection procedures. We value equality & diversity and are committed to eliminating unlawful and unfair discrimination. Appointments will always be on merit.

Applications are welcomed from all people irrespective of age, sex, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, pregnancy/maternity/paternity/caring responsibilities, ethnic and cultural background, nationality, disability, religion or belief.

About this post:

British Taekwondo is looking for an experienced and motivated individual to join one of our volunteer workforce departments, responsible for the development and management of our Sport Performance Program in Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

This would include the review & development of participation strategies and delivery structures to develop a world leading sport performance program for our Cadet, Under 21 and University athlete members, utilizing and growing a pool of highly skilled coaches and support teams with robust and fair selection policies.
