

British Taekwondo Member Health & Safety Guidelines

17 – Glossary of Terms

Abbreviations, acronyms and terms used in BT Member H&S Guidelines are as follows: -

Accident	An undesired or unplanned event which results in physical harm and/or property damage
ALARP	As Low as Reasonably Practical
A&amp;E	Accident and Emergency Department
British Taekwondo	National governing body for WT Taekwondo in the UK
BT	British Taekwondo
BT H&amp;S Advisor	Appointed by the Board as a Health & Safety expert
Board	The Board of Directors of British Taekwondo
IOSH	Institute of Safety and Health
Dojang	A place where Taekwondo is practised.
EFAW	Emergency First Aid at Work
GP	General Practitioner
HSAW	Health and Safety at Work Regulations: 1974
Hazard	A potential source of danger
H&amp;S	Health and Safety
HSE	The UK Health and Safety Executive
HS (G)	HSE Guideline
Incident	Is an undesired or unplanned event without the harm
ISO	International Standards Organisation
Coach/Instructor	The Main Club Coach/Instructor (also read Coach) is the person responsible for H&S in a Club. This responsibility cannot be delegated either upwards (to a Senior/Chief Instructor) or downwards (to an Assistant, Junior or Emergency Instructors or Class Assistant). If the Instructor is not present at a class, then it is their specific responsibility to ensure that all H&S arrangements are in place.
Kyorugi	Taekwondo full-contact sparring
Poomsae	Taekwondo traditional pattern movements
Policy	Document summarising 'what' is committed
Procedure/Guideline	Document describing 'how' to meet commitments
PPE	Personal Protective Equipment
RIDDOR	Reporting of Injuries, Diseases and Dangerous Occurrences Regulations
Risk	A situation involving exposure to danger
RA	Risk Assessment
Sparring	Taekwondo no contact or controlled contact sparring
Taekwondo	Korean Martial Art and Olympic Sport
WT	World Taekwondo the International Sports Federation