AGM Voting Process Notes

- All voting will take place using a secure independent online voting platform
 - All registered members attending in person should ensure they bring a internet enabled device (phone, tablet or laptop) and at the appropriate time as directed by the chair, log into the secure voting portal to vote
 - All registered members attending online should switch to the secure voting portal on a new window at the appropriate time as directed by the chair.
- Mi-Voice - An independent online voting service provider will be conducting the voting process to ensure transparent and secure voting.
- British Taekwondo will contact all registered attendees during week commencing 20th November and confirm voting status (see voting rights notes) and provide AGM log in details.
- Confirmed eligible members and proxies will also receive a separate email from Mi-Voice. An email will be sent from elections@mi-voice.com providing voting members and proxies with a personal, unique and secure link to a AGM voting site with details of how to cast vote(s).
- The voting will take place during the AGM itself as usual, so eligible members must attend and vote when the voting platform time window opens.
- Live voting will take place during a 15-minute window, as signaled by the Chair during the meeting. (All resolutions requiring a vote will be voted upon during this time window)
- Results will be collated by the independent representative from Mi-Voice and presented to the meeting.
